UVic-UCC has a strong commitment to the economic and social development of the surrounding region of Barcelona and Catalonia through teaching, research and knowledge transfer, imbued with a distinctive international vocation. UVic-UCC considers multilingual training key to increased mobility of university students and staff, and the study of language and culture an excellent vehicle for gaining a wider awareness of today's world.

UVic-UCC currently has three campuses in Vic, Manresa and Barcelona, and a branch campus in Granollers. There are eight faculties, offering almost 40 degrees in fields such as biosciences, health sciences, social sciences, education, business, communication studies, design and engineering. The university has 25 research groups, 16 chairs and six research and knowledge transfer centres..

UVic-UCC International Campus

This is an umbrella organisation for UVic-UCC activities aimed at an international public: providing mobility and exchange programmes, postgraduate courses, research programmes, continuing education and international cooperation projects.

UVic-UCC has exchange agreements with universities and institutions in forty-two countries all over the world and makes an effort to ensure that international students at UVic-UCC feel at home, and the small size of the university means more opportunities for student-staff interaction, promoting study and personal development. UVic-UCC meets the needs of international students through the International Relations Unit and Student Services.

The International Relations Unit coordinates and supports the international activities of faculties and teaching centres, working together with the international academic coordinators in each of our centres and international projects team to streamline and develop relations with educational institutions abroad.
